Home Forgiveness Education Award Application

Forgive4Peace is committed to sharing the message of forgiveness. We believe in the power of forgiveness to strengthen all relationships. The Home Forgiveness Education Award is one way to promote forgiveness at home, at school, and at work for the sake of world peace.

This Award will be given to families who complete 14 lessons pertaining to forgiveness. These lessons are to be completed by parents and/or guardians and children, together, along with the oversight of a Forgive4Peace Education Coordinator within a six month period. The Award totals $500 in cash.

As you go through this Home Forgiveness Education curriculum with your children, you will discover how forgiveness can enrich your family life now and far into the future. If you are interested in applying for this Award, please complete the application below.

Please note there are two biannual deadlines: May 15th and November 15th
